Software Engineer Internship – Summer 2025

Are you looking for an internship that provides real-world-project experience, networking with employees and executives worldwide, while growing your talent in a supportive and inclusive team? If so, we want to connect with you!

At Thomson Reuters, we provide information-enabled software to help our customers in the legal, tax, accounting, corporate, news, and media fields, to help them move society forward. By joining us, you will make your mark in one of WayUp's Top 100 Internship Programs of 2021, working on industry-leading projects and opportunities for networking, volunteering, and social events!

We are looking for a Software Engineer Intern pursuing a degree in Information Technology, Management, Information Systems, Computer Science, Computer Engineering, or a related discipline for the Summer of 2025. Our Technology team builds world-class software and solutions for our Legal and Tax Professionals customers.

About the Role:

In this opportunity as a Software Engineer Intern you will have some of the following opportunities:

- Develop Web-Based Solutions: Design and develop web-based research solutions for use by national and international customers using programming languages such as Java, C#, Ruby, and Groovy.
- Develop CMS and Database Systems: Develop large content management systems including data repositories, web-based data access and user interfaces.
- Automated Testing: Design, develop, and execute tests in multiple phases of the software development cycle using Selenium and other tools.
- Collaboration in Large Scale Agile Environment: Collaborate with multiple teams to ensure technology solutions meet business needs.
- Networking: Interns will learn and refine the art of networking on a daily basis to build their portfolio of possibilities for their future career aspirations.
- Performance Analysis: Accomplish performance analysis and tuning of application servers.
- Analysis and Investigation: Investigate system operational issues and perform root cause analysis.
- Cloud Platforms: Gain exposure to AWS or Azure Cloud platforms and technologies.
- Big Data: Apply Big Data mining techniques.
- AI/NLP/ML: Work with Artificial Intelligence (AI) methods, including Natural Language Process (NLP) and Machine Learning (ML).

About You:

You're a fit for the role of Software Engineer Intern if you are/have:

- Currently are pursuing a degree in Information Technology, Management, Information Systems, Computer Science, Computer Engineering, or related discipline that meets program academic requirements
- Strong desire to learn new technologies
- Strong problem analysis, problem solving and issue resolution skills
- Ability to communicate effectively and professionally to both technical and non-technical users
- Strong organization skills and attention to detail
- Ability to prioritize work and communicate issues in a timely manner
- Ability to work independently or as part of an agile development team
