About Salesforce

We're Salesforce, the Customer Company, inspiring the future of business with AI+ Data +CRM. Leading with our core values, we help companies across every industry blaze new trails and connect with customers in a whole new way. And, we empower you to be a Trailblazer, too — driving your performance and career growth, charting new paths, and improving the state of the world. If you believe in business as the greatest platform for change and in companies doing well and doing good — you've come to the right place.

Trailblazers drive innovation, disrupt industries, and shape the world around us. Whether it's delivering awesome user experiences, accelerating productivity, or improving their business acumen, Trailblazers propel the future of technology.

At Salesforce, nothing is more important than the success of our customers and the Product organization has been focused on delivering customer success since Day 1. We deeply understand our customers and constantly seek their input on our products and gather their feedback to improve what we do. We rely on data, experimentation, and research to validate our assumptions and design the best product. We strategically align the company around the vision for market-leading products that our customers love. We partner with engineering, UX, data science, research, marketing, finance, and customer success allow us to rapidly deliver innovative products and next-generation technologies that change how our customers connect to their customers. Our B2B focus creates unique and exciting challenges for delivering the future of technology at scale, requiring us to package and design our products for adoption by thousands of top companies across the world.

We do all of this while giving back to the communities where we work and live. With our 1-1-1 Model we give 1% of our time, 1% of our product, and 1% of our equity back into the community. We believe that business is the greatest platform for change and are working toward a more equal world. And with our partners, customers, and Trailhead learning platform we are creating millions of jobs and skilled workers around the world.

As an Associate Product Manager Intern, you can be part of shaping the future of technology with us. You will have the opportunity to join one of our product teams and work with people across the company to create and launch new products. Our small, personalized program will give you a fun immersive 12 week experience, direct access to senior executives, exposure to how we operate our business, and equip you with hard skills to start your career in product management.
